Full security support was rendered to the DCI on 6 May 1975 during his appearance before the House Defense Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee, George H. Mahon, Chairman.

Component safety officers representing the DCI, DDA, DDO, DDI and DDS&T were briefed regarding the Occupational Safety and Health Act, Executive Order 11807, Safety and Health Provisions for Federal Employees, Reporting and Record Keeping Requirements, and their responsibilities as component safety officers. They were also provided data regarding employees in their components who incurred occupational injuries and illnesses during the first quarter of 1975.

In compliance with Executive Order 11807, representatives of the Safety Branch attended the joint meeting of the Potomac and Central Maryland Chapters of the Federal Safety Council held at the Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, Maryland.

In pursuance of career development, a Safety officer attended a five-day safety course, "Introduction to Occupational Safety," presented by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, Cincinnati, Ohio.

During this reporting period, the Mail and Courier Branch, OL, declared three pieces of mail suspect. These items were radiographed, inspected and declared safe by the Safety Branch. In addition, suspect packages were investigated in the DCI Garage and in Room 5D-3107, Headquarters Building. In both instances the items were found to be safe. During this calendar year, a total of 22 suspect items have been investigated by Safety Branch personnel.

The CIA's participation in the current segment of the "Safety '76" Program was emphasized in six lectures, demonstrations and film presentations to 300 employees, at the Headquarters Building and the [REDACTED]

During the month of May, Headquarters Security Branch personnel rendered support and assistance to the following groups: fifteen students and faculty members of Hope College, Holland, Michigan; thirty students and faculty members of the Military Attache Class; six members of intelligence community agencies held by AC/CPAD/ICS; sixty-one students and faculty members of the Foreign Affairs Executive Seminar; twenty-one students and faculty members from Ohio University; twenty-five family members of the Agency Glee Club during the Spring concert; thirty U.S. businessmen of the Brookings Institution Conference for Business Executives on Federal Government Operation; sixteen DIA Imagery Analysts who participated in the Intelligence Research Techniques Course; the guest speaker for the Guest Speaker Program; nineteen visitors of the Senate Select Committee; forty-eight visitors for a JCS-DIA conference; plus numerous visitors attending Honor and Merit Awards Ceremonies and retirement parties.

A representative of this Division accompanied by a Security Training Officer provided a briefing to several new Federal Protective Officers who may be destined for assignment to the Headquarters Building. This effort was made to dispel certain professed fears of the FPOs with reference to the polygraph examination and background investigation required by this Agency prior to assignment. This briefing was requested by officials of the Federal Protective Service.

Security escort and support were rendered to ABC and CBS television crews outside of Gate 1 in connection with documentary productions by those news media.
